THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION. SOURCE GRADINGS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

SOURCE: A young Cuban exile who has been trained in information collection. His past reporting has been accurate but lacks depth. This information was obtained from a person who attended the lecture.

1. At 8:30 p.m. on 22 May 1965, Manuel Ray Rivero, leader of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JUNE, Cuban Revolutionary Junta), gave the opening lecture in "a cycle of orientation talks" to 25 or 30 members of JUNE's delegations from Tampa, Orlando, and Miami, Florida, who had gathered at JUNE's offices at 1400 W. Flagler Street, Miami.
2. Ray began by saying that JUNE has the men and equipment necessary to win the war of liberation in Cuba. He said that the organization has many good revolutionaries and democrats in its ranks inside and outside of Cuba, and emphasized that JUNE's theme is the same as it was when the organization was founded - only an internal revolution will overthrow Fidel Castro Reg.
3. In regard to arms, Ray said that JUNE had left some weapons in a Dominican military base, and that these weapons would be returned to him as matter who takes over in the Dominican Republic.
4. Ray said that it is necessary that the Cuban exiles in Miami and in other Cuban exile colonies donate and collect money so that Cuba can be liberated from Communism without the help of other countries. He cited the example of the endeavors of JUNE's members in Puerto Rico in trying to sell Gravi toothpaste and soap and in raffling off cars to help defray the cost of purchasing equipment and of maintaining the H/V VIGIL, a 110-foot yacht registered in Panama. Ray said that for every $1,000 worth of Gravi toothpaste that JUNE sells, JUNE will make a profit of $400. Ray proposed that each member of JUNE pledge to raise $100 each month for the next ten months. Although this motion was passed, some of the members commented that it was rather late to start asking people to contribute money to JURE.

5. Ray concluded the lecture by saying that although JURE has experienced some bad times, the organization has survived the worst part and is in good shape. When asked just when JURE would be going to Cuba, Ray said that all good revolutionaries must have patience.
